Traditional Black Teas

These teas have been sourced from all over the world, and can be enjoyed with or without milk. Strength is also a matter of personal preference but, as a guideline, we recommend 1 level or heaped teaspoon per cup. Infuse for 3-7 minutes as desired. Approximately 30-40 cups of tea can be brewed from 100 grams.

Tea Storage

Store in an airtight container (tin, glass, ceramic) and keep in a dark dry place for freshness. Do not expose tea to bright sunlight or strong heat – as these will impact on quality and longevity. Keep black teas up to 12 months and green teas up to eight months (in ideal storage conditions).

* Asterisk indicates a tea which is only available as a 100gram bag.

Flavoured Black Teas

White Teas

White teas are rare, with the leaves being picked and harvested before they have fully opened, when the buds are still covered by fine white hair. White tea is similar to green tea in that it has similar health benefits and it has undergone very little processing and no fermentation, however there is a noticeable difference in taste (white tea has a more delicate flavour) and colour.

2 Doves Silver Needle – One of China’s best white teas. Hints of peach. A fresh lingering finish.	$55.00
Bai Mu Tan (aka White Peony) – Exquisite anti-ageing tea with fresh taste and pale yellow infusion.	$18.50
Shou Mei (aka Sow Mee) – Refreshing aroma, golden liquor and sweet mellow taste.	$16.50

Oolong Teas

Oolong tea (aka Wu Long tea) is semi-fermented which is one of the reasons why it has such a unique character. The semi fermentation gives the tea a little bit more body than a green tea but less body than a black tea. Health benefits include speeding up metabolism and burning calories. Use 1 level or heaped teaspoon per cup. Infuse for 3-5 minutes. The leaves may be reinfused.

Formosa Oolong – Semi-fermented. Thin liquor. Sweet fruity character. Tending black.	$11.50
Fujian Oolong (aka Ti Kuan Yin) – Semi-fermented. Orchid-like notes. Tending green.	$11.50
Spring Pouchong – Rare top quality Oolong from Taiwan. Floral aroma. Sweet aftertaste.	$46.00

Pu Erh Teas

Pu Erh from the southern Chinese province of Yunnan, is fermented twice. When brewed, Pu Erh has a dark reddish colour and a strong, full and earthy taste. Health benefits include speeding up metabolism and lowering cholesterol. Use 1 level or heaped teaspoon per cup. Infuse for 3-5 minutes.

Chinese Yunnan Pu Erh – Fermented twice and matured. Assists in weight loss and cholesterol reduction.	$10.00

Organic Teas

Organic tea is grown without chemicals and with careful attention to the preservation of the ecosystem. Our organic tea has been certified by an independent third party agency.

Organic Young Hyson – Green tea grown without artificial fertilisers, pesticides, and herbicides.	$13.00
Organic Yunnan OP – Black tea grown without artificial fertilisers, pesticides, and herbicides.	$13.00

Decaffeinated Teas

Our decaffeinated teas are processed using the CO2 process. The advantage of this process is that no chemical solvents are used to remove the caffeine. Also, the original distinct character of the tea is retained by using the naturally occurring CO2 in a circulation process which carefully uses high pressure and temperature to extract the caffeine.

	PRICE PER 100G
Decaffeinated Earl Grey – Full flavoured. Natural bergamot oil.	$13.50
Decaffeinated English Breakfast – High quality and full bodied.	$13.50
Decaffeinated Sencha Green – Top quality Chinese sencha.	$13.50

Coffee Beans

We sell Atomic Coffee Roasters coffee beans – the Veloce Blend – as either whole bean or ground (but we are only able to grind for an espresso coffee machine).

Veloce Blend – Ideal espresso coffee with creamy heavy body and delicious syrupy sweetness. Powerful coffee with lingering aftertaste (price per 100g).	$5.50

Harney Fine Tea™

It is widely accepted that loose tea brews a superior cup of tea, but tea bags are more convenient. Now Harney Fine Tea's unique pyramid silken tea sachets combine the attractions of both. You can take your favourite tea "along" with you in your handbag or pocket by using Harney Fine Tea's handy little Tagalong tins. Tagalongs also make a lovely last minute gift - they are easy to mail to someone who lives locally or overseas. We stock a range of Harney's Tagalong tins containing either three or five pyramid silken sachets ($6.90 – $7.90 per tin) as well as a range of 20 Sachet tins ($19.90 – $24.90 per tin), 20 Sachet boxes ($19.90 – $23.90 per box) and individually wrapped sachets ($1.50 each or buy eight for $10).

Zealong™ Tea

New instore to Chapter - Zealong Tea is premium pure Oolong tea grown, processed and packaged in New Zealand (in the Waikato region). Produced to international food safety standards, Zealong is free of chemical sprays, fertilizers and additives. One quarter of the Zealong tea farm and processing is certified organic, and the manufacturing process management system complies with ISO22000. We stock Zealong's Pure, Aromatic or Dark oolong teas in re-sealable 50gram bags ($30 per bag) or 60gram gift boxes ($68 per box).

Mail Order Service

Our products can be purchased at our shop (open Tuesday - Friday 9am-5pm, weekends 9am-4pm, and public holidays excluding Mondays 10am-4pm) or by phone, fax, mail and email. We accept cheque, Visa, Mastercard and online payments. Mail order charges generally range from $3.00 – $7.00, depending on the order size, destination and delivery method (post or courier). Higher charges may apply for large orders or remote areas. Please contact us if you have queries.

Tea Production

Tea is grown in at least 30 countries on five continents. Hence our teas come from all over the world. However, the leading tea producers are China (green teas, black teas, white teas, Oolong, Pouchong, Pu-Erh), India (Assam, Darjeeling, Nilgiri), Kenya (black teas), Sri Lanka (Ceylon), Indonesia (green teas, black teas, Jasmine-scented teas) and Japan (green teas, genmaicha). Our main tea supplier belongs to the Ethical Tea Partnership whose mission statement is "working for a responsible tea industry". Please see www.ethicalteapartnership.org for more details.
